Four members reappointed to Language Access Committee

TOPEKA—Sedgwick County District Judge Eric Commer, Gove County District Magistrate Judge Brendon Boone, Riley County District Court Administrator DaLanna Nichols, and LuAnn Rivera of Wichita were reappointed to the Language Access Committee.

Chief Justice Lawton R. Nuss of the Kansas Supreme Court reappointed them to three-year terms ending June 30, 2020.

The committee makes recommendations to the Supreme Court to ensure that people with limited English skills can access services of the Kansas district courts.
