No. 113,415

IN THE COURT OF APPEALS OF THE STATE OF KANSAS

RYAN URBAN,
Appellant,

v.

KANSAS DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE,
Appellee.

MEMORANDUM OPINION

Appeal from Ellis District Court; GLENN R. BRAUN, judge. Opinion filed December 4, 2015.
Affirmed.

Michael S. Holland II, of Holland and Holland, of Russell, for appellant.

John D. Shultz, deputy general counsel, of Legal Services Bureau, Kansas Department of Revenue, for appellee.

Before SCHROEDER, P.J., PIERRON, J., and HEBERT, S.J.

Per Curiam: Ryan Urban appeals the district court's decision to uphold the administrative suspension of his driver's license based on the certified DC-27 form completed at the time of his arrest being admitted into evidence without the certifying officer being present to testify at trial.

In State v. Baker, 269 Kan. 383, 387, 2 P.3d 786 (2000), the Kansas Supreme Court held:

"The DC-27 form contains the certifications required by K.S.A. 1999 Supp. 8-1002. Once the certification requirements are completed, the DC-27 form is admissible as evidence to prove the statements contained therein. See K.S.A. 1999 Supp. 8-1002(b). Thus, the DC-27 form, if properly completed, is a tool which satisfies the foundational requirements for admission of the results of a defendant's blood alcohol test or refusal to take the test. However, its proper completion is not an absolute requirement for such admission."

Likewise, in Moore v. Kansas Dept. of Revenue, No. 107,810, 2013 WL 5925901 (Kan. App. 2013) (unpublished opinion), a panel of this court found the same statutory language as used in K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 8-1002(b) was plain and unambiguous:

"[K.S.A. 2014 Supp. 8-1002(b)] states the legislature's determination that an officer's DC-27 certification shall be admissible as evidence in all proceedings provided for in the Implied Consent Act relating to alcohol testing for driving under the influence of drugs or alcohol. This would include a trial de novo, like the one under review, requested by a licensee who files a petition for review of the [KDOR]'s order to suspend driving privileges." 2013 WL 5925901, at *5.

In addition, this court recently affirmed various Ellis County District Court decisions upholding driver's license suspensions based on arguments identical to the arguments here in Miller v. Kansas Dept. of Revenue, No. 112,924, 2015 WL 7434008 (Kan. App. 2015) (unpublished opinion); Beims v. Kansas Dept. of Revenue, No. 112,138, 2015 WL 6834323 (Kan. App. 2015) (unpublished opinion); and Alt v. Kansas Dept. of Revenue, No. 112,448, 2015 WL 6621620 (Kan. App. 2015) (unpublished opinion).

Finally, we note Urban failed to address or distinguish the Baker decision in his brief, despite the fact the record reflects the decision was used by the district court in support of its ruling. Urban's failure to recognize Baker as precedent this court is duty bound to follow appears to be a violation of Supreme Court Rule of Professional Conduct 3.3(a)(2) (2015 Kan. Ct. R. Annot. 601), which states: "A lawyer shall not knowingly . . . fail to disclose to the tribunal legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction known to the lawyer to be directly adverse to the position of the client and not disclosed by opposing counsel." See Rotunda & Dzienkowski, Legal Ethics: The Lawyer's Deskbook on Professional Responsibility § 3.3-2, p. 806 (2015-2016) ("The lawyer . . . has an affirmative duty to volunteer to the tribunal any legal authority in the controlling jurisdiction that he knows is directly adverse to his client's position.").

Since Baker is controlling, and Moore and the other unpublished decisions are persuasive, we find the district court properly admitted the DC-27 form. We find the district court's decision to uphold the administrative suspension of Urban's driver's license is supported by substantial competent evidence.

Affirmed under Rule 7.042(b)(3) (2015 Kan. Ct. R. Annot. 68).
