Retired judge reappointed to Judicial Ethics Advisory Panel

TOPEKA—Retired judge Fred S. Jackson has been reappointed to a four-year term on the Judicial Ethics Advisory Panel.

Chief Justice Lawton R. Nuss of the Kansas Supreme Court appointed Jackson to serve from July

1, 2017, until June 30, 2021. He is a retired district judge from Shawnee County.

The Judicial Ethics Advisory Panel serves as an advisory committee for judges seeking opinions on whether a future course of action would violate the Code of Judicial Conduct. All members of the Judicial Ethics Advisory Panel are retired justices or judges.

The advisory opinions are public and are published by the Clerk of the Appellate Courts on the Kansas judicial branch website at kscourts.org.
