Two reappointed to municipal court clerks committee

TOPEKA—Deana Scott of Prairie Village and Traci Dockery of Basehor were reappointed to three-year terms on the Municipal Court Clerks Education Committee by Chief Justice Lawton R. Nuss of the Kansas Supreme Court.

They will serve through June 30, 2020.

The committee recommends and organizes education and training programs for municipal court clerks and reviews and updates the Municipal Court Clerks Manual.

Members include court clerks or administrators and a representative of the Office of Judicial Administration, as well as the president and past-president of the Kansas Association for Court Management.

Scott is municipal court administrator for the city of Prairie Village. Dockery is municipal court clerk for the city of Basehor.
