Four judges to serve on state judicial committee

TOPEKA—Four Kansas judges were appointed to the District Judges Manual Committee.

Chief Justice Lawton R. Nuss of the Kansas Supreme Court appointed them to two-year terms ending June 30, 2019.

New members are:

- Douglas County District Judge Amy Hanley
- Wyandotte County District Judge Jennifer Myers
- Hamilton County District Magistrate Judge Meghan Houtsma
- Allen County District Magistrate Judge Tod Davis.

The committee composes and updates a manual for Kansas district judges and district magistrate judges.
