Chief Judge David King

David King reappointed chief judge of 1st Judicial District

TOPEKA — Chief Justice Lawton R. Nuss announced today the Supreme Court has reappointed Judge David King to a two-year term as chief judge of the 1st Judicial District, effective January 1, 2018, to December 31, 2019.

King has served as district judge in the 1st Judicial District since 1986 and chief judge since 1990. He presides over cases in Leavenworth and Atchison counties.

"We are glad that Judge King agreed to serve another two years as chief judge, providing continuity in capable leadership in the 1st Judicial District," said Nuss.

"I am honored to be reappointed to serve another term as the chief judge for the 1st Judicial District," King said.

King has resided in Leavenworth County since 1981. He is a graduate of the University of Kansas and the KU School of Law.

Each of Kansas' 31 judicial districts has a chief judge who, in addition to his or her judicial responsibilities, has general control over case assignments within the district, as well as general supervisory authority over the administrative and clerical functions of the court.
