Kansas Supreme Court appoints three to Municipal Court Clerks Education Committee

TOPEKA—The Kansas Supreme Court appointed Kathy Bounds, municipal court clerk for the city of De Soto, to a three-year term on the Municipal Court Clerks Education Committee.

The court also reappointed Nicole Armstrong, municipal court clerk for the city of Lenexa, and Greg Nickel, municipal court clerk for the city of Newton.

Their terms began July 1 and will end June 30, 2021.

The committee recommends and organizes education and training programs for municipal court clerks and reviews and updates the Municipal Court Clerks Manual.

Members include court clerks or administrators, a representative of the Office of Judicial Administration, and the president and past-president of the Kansas Association for Court Management.
