Kansas Supreme Court appoints three to Language Access Committee

TOPEKA—The Kansas Supreme Court appointed Oscar Marino, Lawrence, and Maura Miller, Olathe, to the Language Access Committee.

The court also reappointed District Judge Teresa Watson, who serves in Shawnee County of the 3rd Judicial District.

Their terms began July 1 and end June 30, 2021.

Marino and Miller are Spanish-language interpreters.

The committee makes recommendations to the Supreme Court to ensure that people with limited English skills can access services of the Kansas district courts.
