New member appointed to Kansas Child Support Guidelines Advisory Committee

TOPEKA—The Kansas Supreme Court appointed Elizabeth Cohn to the Kansas Child Support Guidelines Advisory Committee.

The 13-member Kansas Child Support Guidelines Advisory Committee includes parents who either pay or receive child support, and attorneys, judges, and tax professionals with expertise in child support.

Cohn, Lawrence, is an attorney for the Kansas Department for Children and Families. She will complete the unexpired term held by Trisha Thomas, Topeka. Cohn will serve through June 30, 2021.

The child support guidelines are reviewed every four years to ensure that the roughly $35 million mothers and fathers pay in support each month is equitable for the parents and appropriate for the day-to-day essential needs of the children they support.
