(a) Every application to an appellate court, unless made during a hearing, shall be by written motion stating with particularity the grounds therefor and the relief or order sought. The motion shall be filed with the clerk of the appellate courts and shall be accompanied by eight (8) legible copies if filed in the Supreme Court and by three (3) legible copies if filed in the Court of Appeals. Any other party may, within five (5) days after service of a motion, serve and file a response thereto with a like number of copies.
