

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF KANSAS

FILED

SEP 28 2012

CAROL G. GREEN
CLERK OF APPELLATE COURTS

ORDER

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Kansas desires to formally recognize the attached "Pillars of Professionalism" as developed by the Kansas Bar Association's Commission on Professionalism in the Bar; and

WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of Kansas commends the Commission for its fine efforts; and

WHEREAS, these Pillars represent inspirational and aspirational goals which Kansas attorneys should strive to reach; and

WHEREAS, these Pillars are not a formal element of the Kansas Rules of Professional Conduct; therefore, a failure to follow any Pillar would not itself lead to administrative action against an attorney's license to practice law;

NOW, THEREFORE, the attached "Pillars of Professionalism" are hereby adopted as aspirational goals which should guide attorneys in attaining and maintaining professionalism.

BY ORDER OF THE COURT this 28th day of September, 2012.

Lawton R. Nuss
Chief Justice

Pillars of Professionalism*

Professionalism focuses on actions and attitudes. A professional lawyer behaves with civility, respect, fairness, learning and integrity toward clients, as an officer of the legal system, and as a public citizen with special responsibilities for the quality of justice.

Admission to practice law in Kansas carries with it not only the ethical requirements found in the Kansas Rules of Professional Conduct, but also a duty of professionalism. Law students who aspire to be members of the Kansas bar should also heed these guidelines. Kansas lawyers have a duty to perform their work professionally by behaving in a manner that reflects the best legal traditions, with civility, courtesy, and consideration. Acting in such a manner helps lawyers preserve the public trust that lawyers guard and protect the role of justice in our society. Lawyers frequently interact with clients, courts, opposing counsel and parties, and the public at large. A lawyer's actions also reflect on the entire legal profession. With those interactions in mind, the following Pillars of Professionalism have been prepared. These Pillars should guide lawyers in striving for professionalism.

With respect to clients:

1. Respect your clients' goals and counsel them about their duties and responsibilities as participants in the legal process. Treat clients with courtesy, respect, and consideration.
2. Be candid with clients about the reasonable expectations of their matter's results and costs.
3. Encourage clients to act with civility by, for example, granting reasonable accommodations to opponents. Maintaining a courteous relationship with opponents often helps achieve a more favorable outcome. Counsel clients against frivolous positions or delaying tactics, which are unprofessional even if they may not result in sanctions.
4. Counsel clients about the risks and benefits of alternatives before making significant decisions. Act promptly to resolve the matter once the relevant facts have been obtained and a course of action determined.
5. Communicate regularly with clients about developments. Keep them informed about developments, both positive and negative.

With respect to courts:

1. Treat judges and court personnel with courtesy, respect, and consideration.
2. Act with candor, honesty, and fairness toward the court.
3. Counsel clients to behave courteously, respectfully, and with consideration toward judges and court personnel.
4. Accept all rulings, favorable or unfavorable, in a manner that demonstrates respect for the court, even if expressing respectful disagreement with a ruling is necessary to preserve a client's rights.

With respect to opposing parties and counsel:

1. Be courteous, respectful, and considerate. If the opposing counsel or party behaves unprofessionally, do not reciprocate.
2. Respond to communications and inquiries as promptly as possible, both as a matter of courtesy and to resolve disputes expeditiously.
3. Grant scheduling and other procedural courtesies that are reasonably requested whenever possible without prejudicing your client's interests.
4. Strive to prevent animosity between opposing parties from infecting the relationship between counsel.
5. Be willing and available to cooperate with opposing parties and counsel in order to attempt to settle disputes without the necessity of judicial involvement whenever possible.

With respect to the legal process:

1. Focus on the disputed issues to avoid the assertion of extraneous claims and defenses.
2. Frame discovery requests carefully to elicit only the information pertinent to the issues, and frame discovery responses carefully to provide that which is properly requested.
3. Work with your client, opposing counsel, nonparties, and the court to determine whether the need for requested information is proportional to the cost and difficulty of providing it.
4. Maintain proficiency, not only in the subject matter of the representation, but also in the professional responsibility rules that govern lawyers.

5. Be prepared on substantive, procedural, and ethical issues involved in the representation.

With respect to the profession and the public:

1. Be mindful that, as members of a self-governing profession, lawyers have an obligation to act in a way that does not adversely affect the profession or the system of justice.
2. Be mindful that, as members of the legal profession, lawyers have an obligation to the rule of law and to ensure that the benefits and the burdens of the law are applied equally to all persons.
3. Participate in continuing legal education and legal publications to share best practices for dealing ethically and professionally with all participants in the judicial system.
4. Take opportunities to improve the legal system and profession.
5. Give back to the community through pro bono, civic or charitable involvement, mentoring, or other public service.
6. Defend the profession and the judiciary against unfounded and unreasonable attacks and educate others so that such attacks are minimized or eliminated.
7. Be mindful of how technology could result in unanticipated consequences. A lawyer's comments and actions can be broadcast to a large and potentially unanticipated audience.
8. In all your activities, act in a manner which, if publicized, would reflect well on the legal profession.

* The late Chief Justice Robert E. Davis (1937-2010) inspired these pillars of professionalism. The Chief Justice "always maintained his sense of grace and civility" and was a model of professionalism. See 79 J. Kan. B. Ass'n. 10 (Oct. 2010). Chief Justice Davis cited the pillars in the Ralph Waldo Emerson poem "A Nation's Strength" to inspire and recognize the staff of the Kansas Legal Services and, thus we believe it is fittingly used here. See 79 J. Kan. B. Ass'n. 9 (Jan. 2010). We dedicate these pillars of professionalism to the memory of Chief Justice Davis.
